

"Ireland 1913 to 1923: A Decade in a Day"

Saturday, November 2, 2019, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Friendly Sons of the Shillelagh
815 16th Avenue, Belmar, N.J.

9:00	Registration, Coffee & Donuts
9:30	Welcome
9:40	Overview of the Decade 1913-1923	F. Peter Halas
10:00	"Spiritual Dynamite" The Great Famine — Home Rule — Irish Republican Brotherhood (IRB) — Cultural Revival	Christine Kinealy
10:45	Break
11:00	"A Terrible Beauty is Born" Dublin-Lockout — Irish Citizen Army — Countess Markievicz — Cumann na mBan — Easter Rebellion	Maureen Brady
11:45	Break
Noon	World War I and the Seeds of Freedom Post-rebellion — Ireland in World War I — Election of 1918 — Séin Fein — Dáil Éireann	Henry McNally
1:00	Lunch
2:00	Self Determination in a Time of Peril Irish War of Independence — Liam Mellows — Anglo-Irish Treaty — Partition — Post-Treaty	Conor McNamara
3:00	Break
3:15	The Tragedy of a Cup Half-Full Anglo-Irish Treaty — Irish Civil War — Ernie O'Malley — Irish Free State Government	Cormac O'Malley
4:15	"At Decade's End" Closing Comments	Mícheál Ó Máille
4:30	A cash bar will be available and there will be a background of Irish music.

General admission $50, IACI members $45. Advance registration only.

Mail check payable to IACI-JS:

Membership Committee, 19 Racquet Rd., Wall, N.J. 07719